English actress Gemma Arterton attended the Venice Film Festival

2016 in a sparkling pair of Chopard statement earrings from the Green Carpet Collection. The stunning pair were 18ct white Fairmined gold set with two pear-shaped emeralds (31.8cts), round diamonds (4.5cts) and marquise-cut diamonds (10.3cts). The emeralds are responsibly mined at Gemfields' Kagem mine in Zambia and the diamonds are sourced from a producer who is an RJC certified member. The gold comes from artisanal mines in South America which are Fairmined certified.
